12th Eurasian Economic Summit of the Marmara Foundation has successfully completed its deliberations.

Joint Communiqué of the 12th Eurasian Economic Summit was published after the closure, and released to the public by the Marmara Foundation.

The Marmara Foundation's summit produced the decision to increase further economic dialogue among the many countries that attended.

The 12th Eurasian Economic Summit presented by the Marmara Foundation concluded its meeting with a joint statement. A house organ will be published quarterly in English and will contain the opinions of a select group of statesmen from the Eurasian region, according to the decisions made in the summit. The Vienna Economic Forum and the Marmara Foundation will jointly organize their activities according to a memorandum of understanding as well.
